

The 3rd Sunday of Easter - 26th April 2020

"Stay with us, Lord."

So even today we continue with the joy of Easter. The joy of Easter where Jesus tells us that he is always on the road to meet us as we travel along in life.

These days, of course, we are all travelling on the same road and we are always a bit worried — how good it was before the way we were living, we were so free, with all that stability we had in our lives — but now with this virus, everything seems to go up in the air.

And Jesus comes and walks with us, not to scold us but to listen to us, to ask us questions so that we can find the true answers, and then he brings us home, and we tell him, "Please, stay with us at home." And as he shares with us and eats with us, he blesses the bread and there we understand that it's not just eating bread, but he has filled our hearts with his presence and everything becomes clear again.

The expectations that we had before, there seem to be other expectations now, which are more realistic. And this is the message that Jesus wants to give us this Sunday.

TQARBINA TAX-XEWQA

Din it-talb hija għal meta persuna tixtieq titqarben, imma minhabba raġuni jew oħra ma tkunx tista', eżempju f'każ ta' mard.

Ġesù, jiena nemmen li Inti tinsab tabilhaqq fis-Sagrament ta' l-Ewkaristija.

Irrid inħobbok fuq kollox u fuq kulhadd.

Inti taf li nixtieq nirċevik ġewwa fija.

Imma ġaladarba bħalissa ma nistax nilqgħek ġewwa fija sagramentalment, nitolbok li tiġi fija spiritwalment.

Ejja għandi Ġesù tiegħi, biex jiena niġi għandek.

Heġġigni bl-imħabba għalik biex f'hajti u f'mewti jiena nemmen fik, nitma fik u nibqa' nħobbok għal dejjem.
